IMPORTANT: PLEASE READ AND SIGN BELOW

Approval of this application by the Design Committee is required before commencing any construction. Failure to obtain approval violates the MTA DCCR and can result in the removal of non-conforming improvements/modifications at the Owner's expense. The Owner is responsible for obtaining all required City and County Building Permits, in addition to the MTA Design Permit. Approval of this application does not reflect an opinion nor ratification of quality or soundness of the plan by the Mililani Town Association, its Board of Directors, employees, agents, assignees or members of the Design Committee. Construction must start within 90 days of Design Committee approval or the Permit is void.

NOTE: Members of sub-associations, condominiums, townhouses, planned unit developments, etc. must obtain written approval from their respective Board of Directors and submit the written approval along with the completed application.
